OBJECTIVE

To use a broad range of skills developed over a 20-year career in customer service, journalism, marketing and publishing to provide leadership and effective communication within a progressive, energetic organization.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Excellent written communication. Hundreds of published articles and columns. Currently craft headlines, captions, subheads and page designs under daily deadline pressure.
- Extensive experience as a reporter, writer, editor and publisher.
- Remarkable attention to detail: proofreading, fact-checking, adherence to style guidelines.
- Exceptional customer service skills. I respond to both internal and external customers daily, in person and via phone or e-mail.
- Successful in a variety of environments, from supervising a team of full- and part-time reporters to working on my own or with a small group to initiate, design and complete major projects.
- Technologically adept, with skills in Adobe Photoshop and Illustrator, Microsoft Office applications, Web applications, etc.
- Research skills: online, traditional, interviews, etc.
- Experience designing material for print and online presentation.
